

"Fantastic and inspiring."

BOOK A VISIT FROM AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR

"The pupils came away buzzing!"

Tamsin Winter

"Reading, resilience and creativity delivered in an inspiring, enthusiastic and energetic way."

"The pupils loved Tamsin and so many of them are already reading her books! Staff were really impressed too. We'll definitely have her back!"

Tamsin Winter is a popular and entertaining author with ten years of experience delivering high-quality and engaging talks and workshops to young people of all ages. Her award-winning books are aimed at readers aged 10-14 and are recommended by Book Trust, The Reading Agency and Empathy Lab. Tamsin writes fresh, funny and heartfelt fiction that explores real-life issues including social media, dynamics of friendship, peer pressure, body image and mental health.

AUTHOR TALK WITH Q&A

1 HOUR 15 MINS.

£335

An entertaining, interactive and meaningful talk that will inspire your students to pursue their ambitions and read more books! Tamsin will discuss the inspiration behind her award-winning books, her journey to becoming an author (which began at eight years old!) as well as speaking honestly about the themes and issues she writes about. Tamsin shares what sparked her love of reading and the importance of human imagination in this technological age. Your students will get to hear some of Tamsin's hilarious school stories and epic fails from her days as an aspiring writer. Students will leave feeling inspired and empowered and best of all - keen to get reading! The talk can be followed by a book signing which Tamsin is happy to help arrange with a local bookseller if required.

Tamsin is very comfortable speaking to large audiences and can provide teaching staff with a special writing challenge before or after her visit if requested. Timings can be adapted to suit your school timetable. There are free teaching resources including book club notes for each of Tamsin's books on the schools page of her website.

FICTION WRITING WORKSHOP

2 HOURS.

£395

Tamsin will take students on a powerful and unforgettable journey into their imaginations. Your young writers will get unique insight into the creative writing process including how to create fictional landscapes, story mapping, characterisation, plotting and narrative hooks. They will enter the workshop as students but will leave as writers. Tamsin provides all resources for the workshop; students only need a pen and pencil. This workshop is for a maximum of 30 students and is best-suited to those with an interest in creative writing. Timing can be adapted to suit your school day.

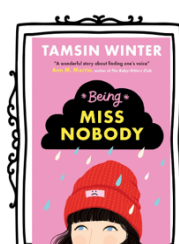

"Tamsin's workshop gave me the confidence to start writing in my spare time again."

HALF DAY RATE £545

FULL DAY RATE £715

"Fast becoming a favourite for young teens"
The Observer

Tamsin is DBS cleared and has Public Liability Insurance. Prices include a signed set of books and are subject to a Contribution to Travel charge. For more information and to book your visit, email hello@tamsinwinter.com www.tamsinwinter.com